

Messages Discussing "Bottle Bets" IG Report
Wednesday 15 Nov 17 to Friday 17 Nov 17

Everyone...PSA on this whole IG thing. We don't know who it was who made the complaint and we really don't need to know. Many of us discussed who it might be but it doesn't really matter.

There were a lot of inaccuracies in the report such as the bets sheet and quiche eater thing. The sheet that's been in effect for years well before my time clearly says that "all bets are voluntary but highly encouraged". It does not threaten anyone's reputation.

The form was not meant to be for public consumption but it was sent out on chats by people who shouldn't have gotten it. Please don't spread it further.

Steve Lozano

Welp it's IG time again around these parts. Time to delete the chat history!

Calvin Stark

I'm saying there's no one else to spread it to, everyone in the (American) fleet already knows

From an Instructor in VT-9 at NAS Meridian

Any word on the IG thing? I heard the commodore is involved

For the bets?

I think it's gonna blow over

Our skipper said It was still authorized

To do the bottle bets? Lol

Ya, we just have to reinforce that it's optional

From an Instructor at NAS Meridian, currently on detachment in El Centro, CA

Who launched the IG complaint against bottle bets?

So, first, hope the knee is doing well. Second, rumor has it that it was a helo transition who launched the IG up there

From pilots stationed at NAS Oceana

It was apparently sent out over several whatsapp groups. Fuck no ba

Sent out over a training o whatsapp group

Amoroso. That shit is blowing up everywhere

Lol

What's everywhere

Dirty has a redacted version of the IG report

Dirty said 106 non paddles IP so I thought of you haha

I heard that somebody finally went to the inspector general about bottle bets. What a surprise....

Hey, I heard someone filed a complaint to the IG over bottle bets.
Have you heard about it?

Yo whats good son?

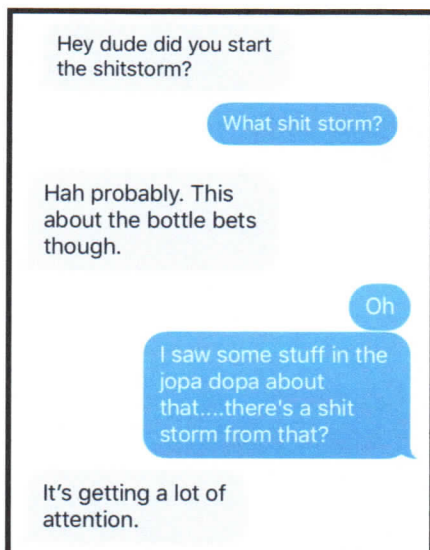

How's shit going? What you been up to? Are you officially out of the navy now? I just saw some shit from 106. I guess someone complained about the bottle bets and sent this IG or whatever up the chain of command. I think they said it was a helo retread so I would assume that dude ambrosso. Whats the deal with all your shit? Any progress?
Kids just a got a few weeks of this shit left son then its back to real life. Can't fucking wait.

Holler at your boi

Pxo just walked in and is all 'You guys here about this IG?!

The blame was being placed on some student.

But then some 83 fag stopped by our ready room today, and he said their skipper told them that it wasn't the student and that it was a former wildcat one oh sux IP.

From a non-pilot officer in Virginia Beach

"Yeah it was sent out to everyone dude. I had a feeling shaw might have had something to do with that because of how it was written. sucks for Amorrosso lol Everyone is gonna hate that dude and he didnt even do it."

From my buddy Adam

Yeah and every student is going to participate because they don't wanna piss of the lps

From a Marine pilot currently on detachment in Yuma, AZ

Grumblings about the bottle bet IG

Wednesday 9:30 PM

Who's grumbling

Sorry couldn't answer. Bunch of guys from my 106 class

Rumor is "it's a ripper who submitted it"

From a pilot at NAS Pax River

A lot of people have a copy of the IG complaint, Dan got it on one of those VFA group texts.

From an F-35 pilot stationed at Edwards Air Force Base in California

Just had a buddy send the full report. Nice write up. Those dudes are so fucked. And more so than ever by their desire to put all this shit in excel spread sheets. Wow

Same guy from earlier?

COD guy

What LSO group?

The cod rag

He said oh I heard It was Steven Shaw

And I said hmm I know that guy.. doubt It was him

And he said yea the cod group chat was it's a guy who's in an air wing now

From an instructor at VT-86 in Pensacola, FL

You dirty dog

What happened?

Did you do it?

Lol, now what happened

I'm talking about the launching of the investigation

'Apparently the guy from 11 is vehemently denying it was him, latest rumor is that it was a vfa106 IP'

Heard it from Cary first....then from them.
Poor helo guy got blamed for it haha.....unless he actually did it. I would be pissed! Classic 106 blaming someone for something they didn't do

("Cary" is stationed in Kingsville, TX)

You get surgery or something? Yeah if they want I think. Last I heard it may be a 106 IP? Not the Ripper helo dude....he swears it wasn't him

From a Marine Pilot in Beaufort, SC

Jw if you could confirm it WASNT amorosso who filed bottle bet complaint

But ppl already now stopped thinking it was him so all good

Yeah at first I thought it would fuck his career but now ppl spreading it wasn't him

How could that have fucked his career?

A whole CAG thought he was a bitch. Out at Fallon

Lol, did they issue a memo?

No just texts

From the falsely blamed student:

Hey, I wanted to let you know. I feel terrible, but your name came up

I'm really sorry

Lol

It's okay I promise

I've heard from all the lines of communication that everyone knows it wasn't you

I'm glad to hear that everyone knows it wasn't me but I still hate the whole situation

It's just a no win
